If one or more dependants are applying with you, the fee increases by £50 for each dependant applying as shown in the table below.

WHO MAY APPLY WITH YOU?

You may include your spouse, civil partner, unmarried or same-sex partner and/or children under the age of 18 if they are applying as your dependants. But they must pay the specified fee if they apply separately.

Children aged 18 or over may not be included. They must apply individually and pay the specified fee in each case.

In the general visitor category, the immigration rules do not allow dependants, so their application(s) are likely to be refused if they apply with you. See the separate guidance notes mentioned on the front of this form for more information.

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974

The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 enables criminal convictions to become 'spent' or ignored after a 'rehabilitation period'. The length of the rehabilitation period depends on the sentence given. For a custodial (prison) sentence the rehabilitation period is decided by the original sentence, not the time served. Prison sentences of more than two and a half years can never become spent and should always be disclosed. Further information on rehabilitation periods can be found at Nacro's Resettlement Plus Helpline on 020 7840 6464 or by obtaining a free copy of their leaflet on 020 7840 6427.
